

Radio and TV stations should definitely be considered solicitations - not for money, but time is money. I don't want anyone calling me for any reason, other than people I know. The do-not-call list should apply to radio and tv stations!

Thank you,

Mike Mains